Civics, Standards, and News Literacy: A Pathway for Student Engagement

Join the McCormick Foundation and Illinois Civics Teacher Mentors from the region for a two-day workshop – Civics, Standards, and News Literacy. This workshop is designed to build teacher capacity in the practices required for the new civics course requirement and emerging social studies standards.

Date:

Monday, June 26, 2017
through
Tuesday, June 27, 2017

Time:

8:30 AM - 3:30 PM

Location:

Southern Illinois
University, Carbondale, IL

Using student engagement as a backdrop, the workshop will offer attendees:

- Strategies and tools that will enrich your curriculum and provide students with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions for effective civic engagement
- News literacy strategies to help your students become wise consumers and producers of information

This workshop is FREE! To reserve a spot visit IllinoisCivics.org.

Breakfast and lunch will be served on both days.

CPDU's will be offered to teachers that successfully complete the two-day workshop. Graduate credit is available for a nominal fee.
