FEATURING:

ILLINOIS STATE REP. DAVE SEVERIN
(R-BENTON)

Illinois State Rep. Dave Severin is currently in his first term of office. He represents the 117th district which includes Williamson County, Franklin County, and a portion of Hamilton County. Dave is a small business owner in Benton, where he operates All Stars-n-Stitches, a screen-printing and embroidery shop. Prior to becoming a state representative, Dave served on the Benton Grade School board for over 29 years, as well as the Board of Directors for Centerstone for over 16 years. Dave and his wife Penny will be celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary in October. Their son Travis and his family also reside in Benton.

Individuals with disabilities are welcomed. Call SIU Disability Support Services at 618/453-5738 to request accommodations.
