

THE MORTON-KENNEY PUBLIC AFFAIRS LECTURE SERIES

ONE OF AMERICA'S LEADING HISTORIANS WILL HELP US UNDERSTAND OUR TURBULENT TIMES

DAVID M. KENNEDY

PULITZER-PRIZE WINNING AUTHOR AND HISTORIAN

Monday, September 23 at 6 p.m.

SIU Carbondale Student Center Auditorium

Free and open to the public

David M. Kennedy is a professor emeritus of history at Stanford University. Kennedy won the Pulitzer Prize in history for Freedom from Fear: The American People in Depression and War, a critically acclaimed account of the presidency of Franklin D. Roosevelt and his times. He collaborated with former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice on a popular PBS documentary, American Creed, that has inspired a spirited conversation about American ideals and identity.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES ARE WELCOMED.
CALL SIU DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES AT 618/453-5738 TO REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS.

SIU
CARBONDALE

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

PAUL SIMON

PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE

www.paulsimoninstitute.org | 618/453-4009

