CALL FOR PROPOSALS FROM SIU GRADUATE STUDENTS
QUESTIONS FOR INCLUSION IN 2015 SOUTHERN ILLINOIS POLL

The Paul Simon Public Policy Institute is accepting proposals for questions to include on the 2015 Southern Illinois Poll.

Proposal Deadline is September 1, 2015.

What is The Southern Illinois Poll™?
The Southern Illinois Poll™ typically surveys 400 registered voters across the region. These surveys are based on a sample of telephone subscribers living in the 18 southernmost counties in Illinois, all south of Interstate 64. For past years’ results, please visit www.simonpoll.org.

Research Opportunity
The Institute is seeking proposals for questions that will aid graduate student research projects. This opportunity is open to any graduate student at SIU. If a proposal is approved, the student will work with the Institute as it develops the final questionnaire; draft a press release describing the results of the survey; and prepare a report on the items and their use in the student’s research.

Proposals should include:
• A brief description of the research project and contact information for supervising professor.
  • Recommended questions (including exact wording and response options).
  • Explanation of how the questions will be used in research project.
